OTHER

Scholarship recipients are expected to be in Spokane all four days of the conference and participate in orientation, educational sessions, and a field session. You are encouraged to attend all receptions and ceremonies including the Richard H. Driehaus National Preservation Awards program, and the closing luncheon. Scholarships will cover conference registration fees and one field session. Upon submission of receipts and completion of the post-conference survey, recipients will also be reimbursed up to $200 for travel expenses.

The National Trust also has a diversity scholarship program that is available nationally. (Please note: Washington residents may only apply for the Washington State Scholarship.)

Travel: Please indicate if you would be interested in receiving information about travel arrangements:

If selected, I would like to be put in touch with other scholarship recipients to coordinate travel arrangements (carpooling, room sharing, etc.). By checking this box, I acknowledge that it will not guarantee travel arrangements, but instead authorizes the Washington Trust to share my contact information with other interested applicants.

Questions: Please contact Anne Holland at aholland@preservewa.org or call 206-624-9449.

Return: Electronic submission is preferred. Please put your first and last name in the subject line followed by "Scholarship Application" and email the form to Anne Holland at aholland@preservewa.org. If electronic submission is not possible, please mail your application to: Washington Trust for Historic Preservation, 1204 Minor Avenue, Seattle, WA 98101.

Deadline: Applications are due by June 21, 2012. Any applications received after this date will be considered on a space-available basis.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND SIGNATURE

I fully understand the requirements for the 2012 National Preservation Conference Scholarship Program. I further understand that incomplete applications and those submitted after June 21 may not be considered.
