

The Planning Association of Washington (PAW) is once again offering our popular Land Use Boot Camps!

6.25 Legal CLE and AICP CM Credits.

Featured Speakers:

Jonathan Walker, Marysville City Attorney; Scott Missall, Short Cressman; Dan McKinney, Transpo Group; Phil Olbrechts, Olbrechts and Associates, PLLC; Jeff Wilson, Director of Growth Management at Commerce; Joe Tovar, Tovar Planning; Bill Lider, Lider Engineering, PLLC; Jerry Litt, SCJ Alliance; Peter Camp; Barry Baker, Grey and Osbourne; Scott Kuhta, Department of Commerce; and others!

Audience:

Designed for professional planners and land use attorneys. The Boot Camps are skills based courses that focus on timely issues and include land use law and practice updates.

Topics:

- Land Use and Marijuana – zoning for marijuana, current case law and legislative responses, and how jurisdictions are addressing marijuana in their zoning ordinances (1 hour)
- Transportation Concurrency – improve your concurrency ordinance and learn how to avoid liability for denying on the basis of concurrency (1 hour)
- Annual Case Law Update – Get up to speed on the land use cases coming out of our state's appellate and supreme courts and how to integrate those decisions into your land use ordinances and planning practices (1 hour)
- GMA Update Endgame – what you need to do to make Commerce happy and create a bulletproof Comprehensive Plan (1 hour)
- Stormwater Fundamentals (Westside) – All about how the stormwater manuals are put together and updated and, more importantly, how well they actually work (1 hour)
- Water Rights/Resources (Eastside) – Learn about the current state of water rights and resources in Eastern Washington (1 hour)
- Mock Hearing – A hearing examiner will lead a mock hearing addressing the issues we discussed earlier in the day and thorny issues in discretionary permit review such as mitigation for impacts, when it's appropriate to intrude into the domain of "final engineering" to condition projects and when it's appropriate to delegate some fact finding to staff in the conditions of approval (1.25 hours)
